J.P. Morgan US Equities Fund

a Sub-Fund of onemarkets Fund

“ASSET CLASS” CHARACTERISTICS

- Sustainability is a mindset and not something achieved by accident. Only by embedding long-term considerations of environmental, social and governance aspects into their corporate strategy will companies be able to improve financial performance, to create enduring value for shareholders.
- Investing for the long-term is a differentiator. Focusing on above average growth over long periods gives far larger and consistent potential outcomes than looking for an increase in valuations over shorter time periods.
- Through the volatility, the portfolio managers continue to focus on stocks in which they have deep convictions on the growth possibilities and take advantage of market displacements for compelling stock selection opportunities.
- The US equity market has by far the biggest capitalisation worldwide, thus offering investors the opportunity to invest in the largest number of leading and highly innovative companies in their sectors and to reach a portfolio diversification. In addition, it offers the greater liquidity, i.e., the ability to be sold in the market, and transparency.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY OBJECTIVE

- The fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing primarily in US companies with positive Environmental / Social characteristics or US companies that demonstrate improving Environmental / Social characteristics. Companies with positive E / S characteristics are those that the Investment Manager believes to have effective governance and superior management of environmental and social issues (Sustainable Characteristics).
- J.P. Morgan Asset Management incorporates ESG factors in research and decision-making across all active investment processes with a single objective: to deliver stronger risk-adjusted returns, enabling investors to pursue their financial goals while promoting environmental and / or social characteristics.

For further details on the investment policy, please refer to the prospectus and the KID. The decision to invest in onemarkets J.P. Morgan US Equity Fund should take into account all the characteristics or objectives of the promoted fund as described in its prospectus.

RISKS

- The prices of the equity may fluctuate significantly as they depend on general economic and political circumstances.
- In periods of market instability the Fund may be required to realise assets at a price that does not reflect their intrinsic value.
- To the extent that the Sub-Fund invests a large portion of its assets in a limited number of industries, sectors, or issuers, or within a limited geographical area, it can be riskier than a fund that invests more broadly.
- If the Sub-Fund invests in other UCITS / UCIs, it may incur a second layer of investment fees, which will further erode any investment gains.
- The integration in the investment process of ESG and sustainability factors with wider monitoring and engagement activities, may have a negative impact on the value of investments and, therefore, on returns.

*Years of experience: Industry / firm

1. WHAT MAKES THIS FUND UNIQUE?

- A dedicated ESG approach to select the companies inserted in the portfolio: The fund selects companies with positive or improving environmental and social characteristics, seeking to invest in companies that have a broad range of environmental and or social characteristics, with effective governance, superior management of environmental and social issues, and a durable economic model.
- Proven investment approach: Our experienced, stable team uses both an approach focused on analysing individual stocks and de-emphasises the significance of macroeconomic and market cycles (bottom-up) both a high conviction stock picking to finding the best investment ideas. The Fund aims at searching for stocks currently trading at prices higher or lower than their real value, leveraging on our successful analyst team established in the late 1980s. Our long tradition of fundamental research has served our clients well for decades.
- Extensive research capabilities: The cornerstone of our approach to equity investing is our dedication to in-house research. We believe our competitive advantage lies in the firm's ability to count on a Sustainable Investing Team. ESG ratings from third-party providers remain inconsistent, meaning in-house research is essential. The fund draws on the fundamental insight of over 20 US equity career analysts, supported by the breadth and depth of J.P. Morgan's global research platform.

2. HOW DO YOU BUILD THE PORTFOLIO?

The fund seeks to build a selected portfolio through a four-step process.

1. Exclude unsustainable industries that deems to be in severe violation of the UN Global Compact or generate revenue from the production of Controversial Weapons, White Phosphorus or nuclear weapon.
2. Apply maximum revenue / production percentage thresholds to conventional weapon, tobacco or thermal coal.
3. We invest in companies identified by our analysts as demonstrating improving sustainability characteristics, based on our ESG checklist.
4. Engage with companies: We use active engagement to understand how companies approach ESG issues, to influence behaviour and to encourage best practice.

3. HOW DOES THE SELECTION PROCESS WORK?

Our philosophy is implemented through a unique and robust investment process which has been in place for over three decades:

- Fundamental research: We create an informational advantage through the proprietary fundamental research of our team of U.S. industry analysts and a global network of research analysts that extends our method of informational advantages to determine the true value or "fair market" of a security.
- Valuation process: Proprietary long-term earnings, cash flows and growth rate estimates.

and finally

- Portfolio construction: The portfolio managers and the analysts work together to select the most attractive risk / reward stocks and put together a well-balanced portfolio of the analysts' best ideas of companies which are the attractive from a sustainability research point and also attractively valued.

4. HOW IS THE INVESTMENT PROCESS?

- The Fund starts with an exclusionary framework. A near-100 question ESG checklist is completed for every company we cover, with the primary goal of assessing the economics, duration and governance of the company. (The fund is an art. 8 under SFDR³).
- We believe that by embedding long-term considerations of environmental, social and governance issues into their corporate strategy will enable companies to maximise financial performance to create enduring value for shareholders.

5. FUND STRATEGY

- The Fund is managed as a high conviction, long-term strategy, with active position sizes driven by conviction. The approach to portfolio construction is primarily bottom-up (approach focused on analysing individual stocks and de-emphasises the significance of macroeconomic and market cycles reflecting that the majority of our highest conviction ideas are found at the stock level.

For illustrative purposes only.
