1. WHAT MAKES THIS FUND UNIQUE?

- This onemarkets Capital Group US Balanced Fund is designed on one of the world's largest and oldest multi-asset strategies³ aiming to offer long-term, prudent exposure to the US economy. Allocation between equity and fixed income will vary depending on the convictions of individual portfolio managers, but on average the 85% of the portfolio is invested in quality income-paying⁴ US equities and bonds⁵, that combine to potentially deliver capital appreciation and downside resilience. This portfolio was designed in reference to a 45 year old strategy that has only experienced five calendar years of negative returns over its lifetime, and navigated across multiple market events such as the Tech Bubble Burst in 2000, Global Financial Crisis in 2008, and COVID-19 pandemic.⁶

2. HOW DO YOU BUILD THE PORTFOLIO?

- The strategy seeks to deliver on all three objectives: conservation of capital, current income and long-term growth of capital and income, over a full market cycle using a multi-asset portfolio.
- The equity portfolio focuses on blue-chip, dividend-paying companies, but with flexibility for more growth-oriented, non-dividend-payers. We look for quality companies that can successfully navigate market volatility, including higher inflation and interest rate environments. The bond portfolio primarily aims to offset equity volatility, with income secondary, and avoids buying high-yield bonds.
- Our approach seeks the opportunities of both worlds: the high conviction of individual managers and the diversification of a team. It brings together all of Capital Group's extensive equity and fixed income research management capabilities together in one portfolio³. The blend of managers is designed to lower volatility while striving for consistently positive long-term returns.

3. HOW DOES THE SELECTION PROCESS WORK?

- Our research efforts draw on the insights of experienced analysts, many of whom have observed companies and industries through multiple cycles. Our investment analysts not only provide investment ideas to portfolio managers but are also able to act on the courage of their convictions by managing a portion of the portfolio via the research portfolio. Our on-the-ground research is combined with comprehensive macro analysis, with equity and fixed income analysts working together to pool resources.
- Our research team includes a group of macro and quantitative analysts who provide information and insights into global and regional macroeconomics and market conditions across asset classes. These views are communicated to portfolio managers to help them in their decision-making process.

4. WHAT IS THE INVESTMENT PROCESS?

- In my role as Principal Investment Officer, I lead asset allocation discussions among the portfolio managers and am responsible for the risk of the overall portfolio.
- We apply a long-term perspective when selecting securities and determining asset allocation in line with our investment objectives.
- Equity allocation is typically 60 – 65% of the portfolio but – according to the Portfolio Manager's conviction – the strategy can vary from the 50% to 75% respectively. The fixed income allocation acts as a diversifier to equities during market volatility while contributing to the overall objectives on its own.

5. MODEL ALLOCATION

The portfolio manager team seeks to invest in attractively valued stocks of companies and primarily investment-grade bonds (which have a credit rating of BBB- / Baa3 or better), with the flexibility to invest up to 20%⁷ of the strategy’s assets outside the US (which include up to 5% in emerging markets such as Hong-King Stock and China Bond) where interesting opportunities may exist.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CHANCES

- Convertible Contingent Bonds (Cocos) allow the Portfolio Manager to receive interest payments that are typically much higher than traditional bonds.
- High-yield bonds are corporate debt securities that pay higher interest rates than investment-grade bonds. They play a diversification role in the portfolio and in certain economic framework they can help generate positive income.
- Hedging a position is usually done to protect or insure against the adverse price movement risk of an asset.
- Emerging Markets offer the potential for competitive returns over the long term, across a variety of countries and industries, and represent an important diversifier for investors.
- The fund offers the possibility to participate to equity market growth in the long-term horizon.

RISKS

- Convertible Contingent Bonds (Cocos) are a form of contingent hybrid securities that behave like debt securities in normal circumstances but which either convert to equity securities or have write-down. A write-down means that some or all the principal amount of the (Cocos) bond will be written down.

CERTAIN HIGH-YIELDING BONDS ARE VERY SPECULATIVE AND INVOLVE COMPARATIVELY GREATER RISKS THAN HIGHER QUALITY SECURITIES THEY ALSO HAVE A HIGHER INCIDENCE OF DEFAULT, AND THEY ARE LESS LIQUID.

- The Fund may invest in instruments, such as derivatives, that might not fulfil their obligations in the future, exposing the relevant sub-funds to financial losses in the process.
- Emerging markets are less established than developed markets and therefore involve higher risks, particularly market, liquidity, currency risks and interest rate risks and the risk of higher volatility.
- The prices of the equity may fluctuate significantly as they depend on general economic and political circumstances.
- The value of investments in bonds and other debt securities or derivative instruments may rise or fall sharply as interest rates fluctuate.
